

Dear ladies and Gentlemen, Dear friends and colleagues of the Euro mediterranean LIBS community,

Please find attached and below the first announcement of the next EMSLIBS'09 which takes place in September 28 - October 1 in Tivoli Terme (RM - Italy). You are warmly invited to contribute to the event.

Please mark your calendar and distribute this announcement to your dear members and colleagues and people interested in LIBS.

We look for latest results and stimulating discussion, from fundamentals to applications.

Registration will be opened on April 2009 and the deadline to submit a one-page abstract for oral presentation will be June 1st, 2009.

Please send your abstract by email to the conference secretariat:

We will do our best to have an excellent Meeting in Tivoli Terme, this of course will be hard work after the excellent EMSLIBS in Paris. The format will basically follow the previous EMSLIBS.

I look very much forward to meeting you in Tivoli Terme.
